

DEPARTMENT of ECONOMICS LEARNING and TEACHING WORKSHOP: 05/12/2016

“Teaching Economics as if it Matters: Content, Relevance and Resonance”

Location: Dunmore Lang College, Macquarie University

Keynote Speakers: Sam Bowles (Santa Fe Institute), Wendy Carlin (University College London), Kiran Gajwani (Harvard), Jeff Borland (University of Melbourne)

Cost: Macquarie University Participants & Non –Macquarie University Participants, Free;

Organizing Committee: Professor Lisa Magnani, Dr. Jordi McKenzie, A/Professor Tony Bryant.

Acknowledgement of Country (9:15am): Wylie Bradford

Welcome Address (9.15–9.30am): Professor Kevin Jameson (Dean of the Faculty of Business and Economics), Professor Leigh Wood (Associate Dean Learning and Teaching) and Professor Lisa Magnani (Head of the Department of Economics).

Session 1 (9.30–10:25am): Jeff Borland, University of Melbourne “Some 1st Year Reflections” General Discussion: 10:25 to 10:45am.

Morning Tea: 10–45am to 11–15am.

Panel Discussion (11:15am–12:15pm): Jeff Borland, Kiran Gajwani, Wendy Carlin, Sam Bowles, “Teaching Large and Diverse Undergraduate Cohorts: Reflections from Four Experts”

Lunch 12.15pm –1:15pm

Session 2 (1.15pm–2.10pm): Kiran Gajwani, Harvard University, “The Art of Advising – How to Guide, Enthuse and Inspire Undergraduates with Good Advice” General Discussion: 2:10 to 2:30pm

Session 3 (2:30pm–3:25pm): Wendy Carlin (University College London) and Sam Bowles (Santa Fe Institute), “The CORE project: a new paradigm for teaching economics as if it matters” General Discussion: 3:25 to 3:45pm

Afternoon Tea: 3:45pm–4:15pm

Session 4 (4:15pm–5:10pm Sam Bowles (Santa Fe Institute) and Wendy Carlin (University College London) “CORE in the classroom – applications and experiences so far” General Discussion: 5:10pm to 5:30pm

Concluding Session and Thanks: Lisa Magnani, Macquarie University.